

FRAME 1 OF 10 • IS IT TRUE?

Fact Desk

Check a story before you repeat it. Name: _____

Story: _____

Where I saw it: _____ Date: _____

The method

1. UNDERLINE every claim you could check: names, dates, numbers, places, quotes.
2. RANK them. Write C next to claims to CHECK. Write S next to SAFE ones everyone knows.
3. LEAVE the story. Name a second source for each C. A second source is NOT where you first saw it.
4. VERDICT. Check one stamp. Give your evidence.

CLAIMS I MARKED C

CLAIM (COPY IT HERE)	SECOND SOURCE: WHERE I'D CHECK IT

Counts as a second source: a textbook, an encyclopedia, a museum, or government site, a different outlet that did not copy the first. Does not count: asking the same AI again, or "I'd Google it" with no source named.

VERDICT

☐	RUN — it's clean, pass it on	☐	FIX — correct it, then pass it on	☐	KILL — don't repeat it
--------------------------	-------------------------------------	--------------------------	--	--------------------------	-------------------------------

My evidence — what I found, and does the story's point still stand?

SO WHAT? Why does this matter to someone my age?

FRAME 2 OF 10 • WHO WINS, WHO LOSES?

The Trade

Every change is a trade. Find both sides. Name: _____

Story: _____

Where I saw it: _____ Date: _____

The method

1. NAME the change in the story. One sentence.
2. WHO WINS? What do they get?
3. WHO LOSES SOMETHING? Somebody always does. Look harder.
4. WHAT COULD GO WRONG later, even if it works at first?
5. MY CALL. Is the trade worth it? Say why.

The change — in one sentence:

Who wins? What do they get?

Who loses something? What do they lose?

What could go wrong later?

MY CALL

☐	WORTH IT — the wins beat the losses	☐	NOT WORTH IT — too much lost	☐	ONLY WITH A RULE — fix the risk first
--------------------------	--	--------------------------	-------------------------------------	--------------------------	--

Because — name the win or the loss that decided it:

SO WHAT? Why does this matter to someone my age? _____

FRAME 3 OF 10 • WHAT SHOULD THE RULE BE?

Write the Rule

Don't argue about who's right. Write the rule you'd want. Name: _____

Story: _____

Where I saw it: _____ Date: _____

The method

1. THE QUESTION. What is the story trying to decide? Write it as a question.
2. THREE RULES that could answer it. Make each one different: strict, loose, in the middle, or creative.
3. GRID each rule: who it helps, who it hurts, what it costs (money, time, or freedom).
4. MAKE IT A POLICY — rules that go together. Could a school run all three at once? Fix the ones that collide, then number them 1, 2, 3.
5. DEFEND ONE in three sentences: the rule, the reason, the proof.

The question the rule has to answer:

RULE	WHO IT HELPS	WHO IT HURTS	WHAT IT COSTS

MY 3-RULE POLICY _____

DEFEND ONE RULE — THREE SENTENCES _____

Need a start? The rule is _____. It matters because _____. We know this works because _____.

2. FIVE WAYS to pay the bills are in the grid. For each, write one gain and one loss for the people who use it.
3. PICK ONE. Check the way you would choose if you ran it.
4. SAY WHY in two lines. Name the loss you can live with.

The free thing: _____

WAY TO PAY THE BILLS	ONE GAIN FOR USERS	ONE LOSS FOR USERS	PICK
Donations — people give money if they want to.			☐
Ads — companies pay to show you stuff.			☐
Membership — everyone pays a little each month.			☐
One sponsor — one company pays for it all.			☐
Sell it — a bigger company buys the whole thing.			☐

🔍 WHY I PICKED IT _____

Need a start? I'd pick _____ because the gain is _____. I can live with the loss because _____.

Story: _____

Where I saw it: _____ Date: _____

2. PICK THE UNIT: one hour, one month, one gigabyte, one slice. Same unit for all three.
3. COST PER UNIT = price ÷ amount. Show your math.
4. MATCH each person below to the best option for them. Say why.

OPTION	PRICE	HOW MUCH YOU GET	COST PER UNIT

Show your math — price ÷ amount for each option

🔍 BEST OPTION FOR EACH PERSON

PERSON	BEST OPTION	WHY

Percent Change Card

A price change, as a percent and as hours of your life. Name: _____

Story: _____

Where I saw it: _____ Date: _____

The method

1. OLD and NEW price go on the card. Not in the story? Use an old and a new price you know: a game, a bus fare, a pair of shoes.
2. DIFFERENCE = new – old.
3. PERCENT CHANGE = difference ÷ old × 100. Round it.
4. HOURS OF WORK = new price ÷ pay per hour. Use a pay rate you could really earn.

FRAME 10 OF 10 • WHAT WOULD HURT MOST TO LOSE?

Risk Grid

You can't protect everything. Spend where it hurts most. Name: _____

Story: _____

Where I saw it: _____ Date: _____

The method

1. FIVE THINGS worth protecting: from the story, or your own phone, game saves, bike, account.
2. RATE 1 to 3. Cost to replace: 1 = cheap, 3 = expensive. How bad if gone: 1 = annoying, 3 = disaster.
3. SCORE = cost × how bad. The highest score gets protected first.
4. SPEND 10 COINS. Buy two protections from the menu. Some pairs cost more than 10, so you can't have both. Say why those two.
